

MADISON HISTORICAL SOCIETY

MEMBERSHIP FORM

The Madison Historical Society is dedicated to preserving the unique and colorful heritage of Madison and bringing its stories to the public. The historical society maintains a library, archive of historic documents and photos, and a small museum at the MHS office and resource center at 126 West Main Street, Madison Village, Ohio. The society also preserves an extensive collection of items dating to Madison's earliest times. The Madison Historical Society is a non-profit, self-supporting organization.

We sponsor programs and events with history themes throughout the year.

With your membership you:

- Receive regular copies of THE TIMES with stories of Madison's past
- Receive free admission to most MHS events
- Receive free look-ups at the MHS Archives
- Add your name to those who support historic preservation in Madison
- Help support our permanent home
